

Packing

We understand how important it is to have your products packed properly and efficiently. Through on-site training, our staff learns the very basics of your warehouse packaging line so that they are able to Manager checking goods on production line meet your specific needs. Whether you utilize automated packaging or manual packaging, we are here to provide you with reliable and professional employees so that your packaging lines run as efficiently as possible.

www.extremestaffingtexas.com

contact@extremestaffingtexas.com

(817)4379929

www.extremestaffingtexas.com

GENERAL LABOR

GENERAL LABOR

Services

Extreme Staffing has built a organization dedicated to costumers who expect and rely on the highest level of service, Our professional and reliable staff is available in the following areas:

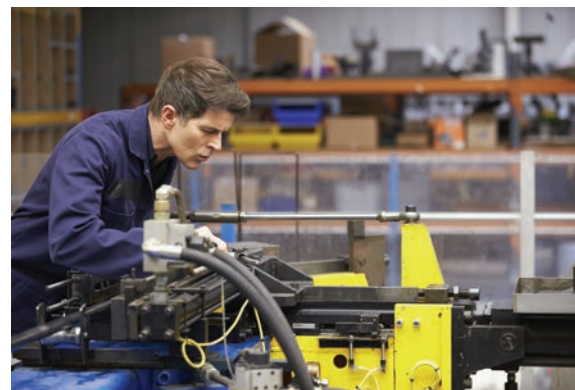

General labor

Keeping a warehouse running optimally is vital to keeping the operations and production side of your business running smoothly. That is why we want to provide you with a wide variety of top-notch, reliable employees for your warehouse operations. We are proud to offer staff that includes assembly workers, machine operators, production worker, and logistics staff. Our staff will help you cut variable and fixed costs, improve you operating efficiency, and allow you to be more responsive to your consumers demands

Machine operator

We understand that operating your machinery is something that takes trust. We are ready and excited to build that trust with you. ThroughFactory engineer operating hydraulic tube bender onsite training, we will learn how to expertly operate your machinery. This includes anything from forklifts to manufacturing machinery, to learning how to do basic troubleshooting in the case of a malfunction. Our machine operators are prepared to assist you in improving your operational efficiency through unique solutions to your individual machinery needs.

contact@extremestaffingtexas.com

(817)4379929

www.extremestaffingtexas.com

